TRANSLATED ABSTRACT:

The article talks about a restoration carried out by Maria Barbara Stella of the gouache on canvas painting portraying "Jesus at the sepulcher" from the 17th century.

The painting came back to life, thanks to the meticulous restoration which lasted several months.

The presentation of the restoration took place in the Church of Jesus in the presence of the authorities of Ferrara, the Rotary club, sponsors of the restoration and many faithful, overall satisfied thanks to the conservator's excellent work.

The restoration was carried out through the patronage of the Ministry of Artistic and Historical Heritage through the direction of Ms. Agostini of the Department of Artistic and Historical Heritage of Ferrara and Bologna.
